

Bylaws of Redditch Golf Club

1. General

The locker rooms shall be opened at 8.00am, and closed when the Club closes. The remainder of the Clubhouse shall be opened daily at 8.00am and closed one hour after the expiration of the time fixed for the sales of intoxicating liquor or at any time as may be decided by the Business and Finance Committee.

The times for the sale and consumption of intoxicating liquor shall be:

Monday to Saturday: The bar may open between the hours of 11.00am and 11.00pm at such times as the Business and Finance Committee may decide.

Sundays: The bar may open between the hours of 12.00 noon to 10.30pm at such times as the Business and Finance Committee may decide.

Extensions to these hours may be granted by the Business and Finance Committee within our existing licence.

The bar may open on Boxing Day and New Year's Day as decided by the Business and Finance Committee.

The Club will not supply intoxicating liquor to persons under eighteen years of age, nor allow such persons to consume alcohol on the premises.

2. Visitors and Guests

The appropriate current visitors' fees agreed by the Business and Finance Committee and as posted on Playing Visitors' Green Fees notice will apply.

Visiting golfers are allowed the privilege of using the course facilities and Clubhouse on such terms and conditions as the Business and Finance Committee from time to time determine and subject always to Rule 20.3 as to the supply to them of intoxicating liquor. The name and golf club of every visitor and the name of their introducer, where appropriate, must be entered in the Visitors' Book before they begin to use the course facilities or Clubhouse. (Rule 21.1) When booking via the internet this will be considered as an electronic signature.

Guests introduced by and playing with a Member may do so on payment of such reduced rate as is, from time to time, prescribed by the Business and Finance Committee, provided that:

- On any given day this privilege is limited to three guests per Member;
- This privilege shall be granted to the same guest on not more than twelve occasions in a calendar year. (Rule 21.2)

A Member may introduce guests to the privileges of the Clubhouse subject to such regulations and restrictions as the Business and Finance Committee from time to time may make and provided that such guests shall be accompanied by their introducer and the name and address of each guest and the name of his/her introducer shall be entered in the Visitors' Book upon admission into the Clubhouse. This privilege shall be granted to the same guest on not more than twelve occasions in a calendar year. (Rule 21.3)

No golfing visitors or guests may play on a Competition Saturday or Sunday before the end of the time-sheet of competition entries.

A Member may introduce a junior golfer at the appropriate green fee. A Junior Member may introduce a junior guest, at the appropriate green fee, on weekdays only and provided that the junior guest is in possession of an official club handicap.

A Member of Redditch Golf Club cannot sign in a guest at a reduced Green Fee if that person is visiting as a member of a Golfing Society or Party booked in through the Competitions Committee.

Members are responsible for ensuring that the reduced Guest Green Fees are paid at the earliest opportunity, ideally before commencement of play. If, for any reason, this is not possible, it is the Member's responsibility to ensure that all such fees are paid before leaving the premises. Any Member who fails to ensure that such fees are paid as described will be required to pay for their guests at Playing Visitor rates.

3. Dress

The appropriate current dress rules agreed by the Captain's Committee and as posted on the Club Notice Board will apply.

4. Junior Members

Junior Members under eighteen years of age are not allowed to purchase or consume intoxicating liquor in any of the bars. Unaccompanied Junior Members may only use the Course bar for the consumption of soft drinks until 8.30pm.

5. Subscriptions

For all those who are Members as of 1st April 2016, subscriptions will be due annually on that date and will become overdue thereafter. Any Member who has not paid the amount due by 1st April will not be permitted to use the Club facilities. Any Member whose subscription is unpaid by 30th April shall, if the Business and Finance Committee so determine, cease to be a Member.

Any person who applies to become a Member after 1st April 2016 will be required to pay all subscriptions due within 30 days of their acceptance as a Member and subscriptions will be overdue after this time has elapsed. Subscriptions must be paid prior to any Club facilities being used. Future annual subscriptions will become due on the anniversary of the date of admission and will become overdue thereafter.

In the event of the death of a Member, the balance of the subscription outstanding will be returned to his/her estate.

6. Entrance Fees

Entrance fees for all categories of membership and rejoining members will be as determined by the Business and Finance Committee. The appropriate entrance fee is due in full at the time of acceptance as a member to the Club, or may be paid over five years if requested.

7. Admission of Members

The admission of members shall be at the discretion of the Captain's Committee. (Club Rule 15.1.)
